

WHERE TO FIND HELP

If you do not meet the basic eligibility requirements for the Eviction Diversion Pilot Program (EDPP), the resources below may be able to assist you.

MEDIATION AND LEGAL SERVICE PROVIDERS

- Stay Housed LA
Provides information, resources, and in some cases legal advice or representation to help tenants stay in their homes.
Call: 1-888-694-0040
Apply online: bit.ly/42c3l4o

- Self-Help Legal Access Centers (SHLAC)
Provides information and resources for people representing themselves in court. SHLACs are in courthouses, including Compton. For help with unlawful detainer (eviction) cases, call the Compton UD hotline at 323-352-0301
Find your nearest SHLAC: bit.ly/4szSQ60

- Los Angeles County Department of Consumer and Business Affairs — Mediation Services
Provides mediation or negotiation to help resolve issues such as rent, repairs, or move-out timelines and may help parties avoid court.
More information: bit.ly/4tfYonk

- Loyola Law School Center for Conflict Resolution
Offers mediation or negotiation services to help tenants and landlords reach in reaching agreements on rent, repairs, or move-out timelines, and potentially avoid court proceedings.
Apply for help: bit.ly/4svsq5n

PLEASE SEE NEXT PAGE FOR MORE RESOURCES

OTHER RESOURCES

- Tenant Power Toolkit
tenantpoweredtoolkit.org
- LA Housing Rights Center: Project Place Listings
housingrightscenter.org/rental-listing
- Accessible Housing Registry
lahousing.lacity.org/AAHR
- Affordable Housing
affordablehousing.com
- LA County Housing Resource Center
housing.lacounty.gov
- LA County Assist
1degree.org
- Food Banks
bit.ly/3Qm6iwl

For more information about EDPP:

SCAN

VISIT:
bit.ly/4ceX2TJ

CALL:
562-228-0279

NOTES